

Frequently Asked Questions for Health Care Providers

1. How will this impact my patients using the Company's medications?

Your patients can expect the same access to the highest quality products and the same level of excellent service – without interruption.

2. Will there be any disruption of medication supply for my patients?

No. You and your patients can expect the same access to the highest quality products and the same level of excellent service – without interruption.

3. Why should I continue prescribing the Company's medications?

You and your patients can expect to receive the same access to the highest quality products and the same level of excellent service – without interruption. Our commitment to our mission and our patients has not changed.

We remain focused on providing high-value branded pharmaceutical products as well as quality, cost-saving generics that can help improve patient quality of life, and we will continue to invest in the expansion and enhancement of our portfolio.

4. Will you be continuing your patient-related policies and programs?

Yes. We are continuing our patient-related policies and programs.

5. Will you continue to invest in brand-building efforts?

Yes. We are moving the business forward – and that means we will continue to invest in our commercial strategies.

6. Will you continue to invest in R&D and clinical trials?

Yes. We are moving the business forward – and that means we will continue to invest in R&D and clinical trials.

7. Will my point of contact at the Company change?

We do not anticipate any change to your usual point of contact.

8. How can I obtain more information?

As always, you should feel free to reach out to your regular point of contact with any questions. For more information about the financial restructuring process, please visit endotomorrow.com.